

FIELD EDUCATION (SOCIAL WORK) (FED)

FED 5301. Field Education Seminar I. (0 Credits)

This seminar helps students prepare for and make optimum use of their field education experience. Topics include the roles and responsibilities of the student within the agency setting, exploration and development of learning contracts, and the educational assessment of self as a learner in the profession. The seminar is used to identify issues that arise in the field and ways to deal with them. Required course for students in the M.S.W. program.

Enrollment Requirements: Corequisite: BASC 5390, 5391, and FED 5351.

Grading Basis: Registered

View Classes (<https://catalog.uconn.edu/course-search/?details&code=FED%205301>)

FED 5302. Field Seminar II. (1 Credit)

This seminar helps students prepare for and make optimum use of their field education experience. Areas of seminar content include such topics as the roles and responsibilities of the student within the agency setting, exploration and development of learning contracts, and the educational assessment of self as a learner in the profession. The seminar identifies issues that arise in the field and ways to deal with them. Required course for students in the M.S.W. program.

Enrollment Requirements: FED 5352 taken concurrently.

View Classes (<https://catalog.uconn.edu/course-search/?details&code=FED%205302>)

FED 5310. Field Education Seminar III. (0 Credits)

This seminar helps students prepare for and make optimum use of their field education experience. Topics include the roles and responsibilities of the student within the agency setting, exploration and development of learning contracts, and the educational assessment of self as a learner in the profession. The seminar is used to identify issues that arise in the field and ways to deal with them. Required course for students in the M.S.W. Program.

Enrollment Requirements: Open to students in the MSW program.

Grading Basis: Registered

View Classes (<https://catalog.uconn.edu/course-search/?details&code=FED%205310>)

FED 5311. Field Education Seminar IV. (1 Credit)

This seminar helps students prepare for and make optimum use of their field education experience. Areas of seminar content include such topics as the roles and responsibilities of the student, field instructor and faculty advisor, exploration and development of the learning contract, and the educational assessment of self as a learner in the profession. Required course for students in the M.S.W. program.

Enrollment Requirements: Corequisite: ADMIN 5354 or CORG 5354 or IGFP 5354 or POPR 5354.

View Classes (<https://catalog.uconn.edu/course-search/?details&code=FED%205311>)

FED 5340. Field Practicum Extension. (1-5 Credits)

Field Practicum Extension of hours.

View Classes (<https://catalog.uconn.edu/course-search/?details&code=FED%205340>)

FED 5350. Field Education Seminar V. (1 Credit)

This seminar helps students prepare for and make optimum use of their field education experience. Topics include the roles and responsibilities of the student within the agency setting, exploration and development of learning contracts, and the educational assessment of self as a learner in the profession. The seminar is used to identify issues that arise in the field and ways to deal with them. Required course for students in the M.S.W. program completing a Block Field Placement.

Enrollment Requirements: FED 5302 and 5352; open only to MSW students. Corequisite: CORG 5355 or IGFP 5355.

View Classes (<https://catalog.uconn.edu/course-search/?details&code=FED%205350>)

FED 5351. Field Education Foundation I. (4 Credits)

Teaches students basic skills in social work practice with systems of all sizes including individuals, groups, organizations, and communities. This field experience course provides the foundation for the development of advanced skills in specific social work methods in advanced field experiences. Required course for students in the M.S.W. program.

Enrollment Requirements: Corequisite: BASC 5390, 5391, and FED 5301.

View Classes (<https://catalog.uconn.edu/course-search/?details&code=FED%205351>)

FED 5352. Field Education Foundation II. (4 Credits)

Continues to develop basic skills in social work practice with systems of all sizes, while adding increased emphasis on the students' development of skills in the students' major method. Required course for students in the M.S.W. program.

View Classes (<https://catalog.uconn.edu/course-search/?details&code=FED%205352>)