

EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY (EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY) (MA)

The Master's degree with an area of concentration in Educational Technology features the "two summers M.A." online option and campus-based programs. For those students who already hold a Master's degree, they may apply to the Sixth-Year Certificate program which requires 30 credits beyond the Master's degree. The graduate program in Educational Technology prepares educators to put theory into practice in service to the wise integration of technology in formal and informal learning environments.

Requirements

The M.A. in Educational Technology requires 30 credits. For the "two summers" online option, students work in a cohort program to complete their degree by following the program requirements. For on-campus students, two different options exist: a thesis (Plan A) or non-thesis (Plan B) option related to a student's graduate plan of study designed in concert with a major advisor. For Plan A, students complete a reduced plan of coursework (21 credit hours) followed by nine credits of Master's thesis research (GRAD 5950 Master's Thesis Research or GRAD 5960 Full-Time Master's Research) and defense of a research-based thesis. Plan B, the non-thesis option, requires a 30 credit plan of coursework, followed by a successful completion of a comprehensive examination. In general, the thesis option is preferred, especially if the student intends to complete doctoral degree requirements. The list below presents courses often included in the plan of studies for the Master's degree program.
