

FOUNDATIONAL CONCENTRATION IN U.S. LAW

LAW 7661	Federal Income Tax
LAW 7525	Property
LAW 7635	Secured Transactions
LAW 7742	Trusts and Estates

Eligibility

Students enrolled in any LL.M. are eligible for this concentration but must also meet any LL.M. specific course requirements.

There are four concentrations on different aspects of foundational U.S. law available to students enrolled in an LL.M. program:

- The Foundations of U.S. Law
- U.S. Civil and Criminal Justice
- Business Law and Regulation
- U.S. Law of Property Transfer

A student can earn up to two foundational concentrations within the LL.M. degree. Students electing to complete two foundational concentrations cannot have more than one overlapping course in each foundational concentration.
