

AMERICAN STUDIES MINOR

This minor promotes an interdisciplinary understanding of the complex economic, political, and cultural structures of the United States and its place in the world.

Requirements

Students must complete fifteen credits, including:

- Six credits of courses with an AMST designation, at the 2000 level or above.
- Nine credits taken from any of the courses listed under “course requirements” in the American Studies major or courses approved by the director of American Studies.

Courses used to fulfill the student's major field requirements and their related coursework for the major may also be used to fulfill the American Studies minor.

The minor is offered by the American Studies Program. For more information, contact Chris Vials, Director, at 860-486-9033.
