

BUSINESS FUNDAMENTALS MINOR

This minor provides students with the knowledge and skills necessary to navigate the business world. Students learn fundamental concepts from accounting, business information systems, business law, finance, management and marketing. Students majoring in the School of Business may not earn this minor.

Requirements

Five three-credit courses offered by the School of Business are required. Courses other than ACCT 2001 Principles of Financial Accounting and BADM 2101 Principles of Managerial Accounting (or ACCT 2101 Principles of Managerial Accounting) must be at the 3000/4000 level.

Required Courses

| Course | Title | Credits |

| BADM 3104 or OPIM 3104 | Operations Management | |
| Select one 3000/4000-level Business course | | 3 |
| Total Credits | | 15 |

Students must complete five classes from at least four of the following subject areas:

- ACCT
- BLAW
- FNCE
- HCMI
- MENT
- MKTG
- OPIM

Classes taken as BADM will count toward the corresponding subject areas of their equivalent course. HRTS and MKTG courses cross-listed with BLAW courses will count towards the BLAW subject code.

Credits from internships cannot be used to satisfy requirements of the Business Fundamentals minor.

Courses designed for students pursuing this minor can be found in the Business Administration (BADM) course description section of the Catalog. Other courses offered to business majors may be available to students pursuing a Business Fundamentals minor, but students will typically require departmental permission to register for those classes. Students should also note that they must meet all prerequisites for those classes. Access to courses for this minor is on a space available basis, and the School of Business cannot guarantee completion of this minor. Refer to the School of Business section of this catalog for restrictions on Business minors and limits on the number of Business courses available to non-Business students.

The minor is offered by the School of Business (<https://www.business.uconn.edu/>). For more information, contact the Undergraduate Programs Office, School of Business, Room 248 or phone 860-486-2315.
