

INTERPRETING BETWEEN AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE AND ENGLISH MINOR

Requirements

This minor provides students with an introductory and broad view of the profession and process of interpreting American Sign Language and English.

A total of 15 credits (five 3-credit courses) of 2000-level or above coursework is required.

All students enrolled in this minor are required to complete the following courses:

Course	Title	Credits
ASLN 2500	Introduction to Interpreting: American Sign Language and English	3
ASLN 2600	Process of Interpreting: American Sign Language and English	3
ASLN 2700	Interpreting in Various Settings	3
ASLN 2800	Consecutive Interpreting	3
Select one of the following:		3
ASLN 3290	Field Study
ASLN 3292	Experiential Learning
ASLN 3293	Foreign Study
ASLN 3295	Special Topics
ASLN 3298	Variable Topics ¹
ASLN 3299	Independent Study ¹
ASLN 3305	Advanced American Sign Language
ASLN 3306W	Advanced American Sign Language Level II
ASLN 3360	Deaf Art and Artists
ASLN 3650	Deaf Writers and American Sign Language Literature
LING 2850	Introduction to Sociolinguistics of the Deaf Community
LING 3850	Cultural and Linguistic Variation in the Deaf Community
ASLN/LING 3800	Structure of American Sign Language
ASLN/WGSS 3254	Women and Gender in the Deaf World
Total Credits		15

¹ As approved by the Interpreting Between American Sign Language and English minor advisor.

Only one overlapping course may be used by students doing a minor in both American Sign Language/Deaf Studies and Interpreting American Sign Language and English.

The minor is offered by American Sign Language Studies.